

Compound Words

Compound words are formed when two or more words are put together to form a new word with a new meaning.

1. Give the first word and ask the participants to say the next word.
2. Some words may have more than one answer; accept any correct answer!

Hair	drier or spray
Foot	ball
Apple	sauce
Candle	stick
Earth	quake
Dog	house
Blue	berry
Board	walk
Hush	puppy
Finger	nail
Meat	ball
Brain	storm
Sign	post
Dragon	fly
Moon	light
Key	hole or ring
Ear	ring or drum
Dish	water
Back	bone
Draw	string
Cigarette	lighter
Thunder	storm
Grape	fruit
Book	case or worm
Rattle	snake
Some	where or what
Drive	way
Arm	chair
Mocking	bird
Pepper	mint
Barn	yard
Hedge	hog
School	house
Fire	works or fly
Care	taker
Oat	meal
Cow	boy
Birth	day
Foot	print
Honey	comb
Cup	cake
Rail	road

Rain	drops
Jelly	fish
Corn	bread
Lady	bug
Light	house
Sun	flower
Tomb	stone
Road	runner
Pea	nut
Dish	washer
Door	bell
Bull	dozer or horn
Rain	coat
Jelly	bean
Air	port
Rail	way or road
Watch	man
Grass	hopper
Rattle	snake
Star	fish
Air	port
Heart	beat
Butter	fly
Chop	stick
Ever	green
Sail	boat
Jack	pot

